

 FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE **

ROOFTOP FILMS 2006 SUMMER SERIES
10 YEAR ANNIVERSARY
THU-FRI-SAT JUNE 1-SEPT 23

Contact: Mark Elijah Rosenberg
Artistic Director, Rooftop Films
press@rooftopfilms.com
718-417-7362

FOR A FULL SCHEDULE INCLUDING FILMS AND VENUES VISIT WWW.ROOFTOPFILMS.COM
OR CALL 718-417-7362 FOR MORE INFORMATION.

GENERAL INFO

+ In the Summer 2006 Rooftop Films will host 48 screenings of new, independent short and feature-length films in a variety of outdoor locations all around New York.

+ Films include a range of comedy, drama, personal documentary, political documentary, youth films, experimental films, animation, music videos and more. Most programs are suitable for children.

+ Rooftop Films will screen 25 feature films, including many New York, US and world premieres. In addition, Rooftop Films will screen over 250 short films in 23 themed programs.

DATES: Screenings take place Thursdays, Friday and Saturdays all summer long from June 1 through September 23, plus the 4th of July and other special events.

TIME: Screenings feature live music at 8pm and films from 9-11pm.

COST: Admission is generally $8-10, with select shows either a higher price or free.

VENUE INFO

- + Screenings take place in a variety of outdoor locations, including:
 - + the roof of the Old American Can Factory in Gowanus (Brooklyn)
 - + the roof of Downtown Community TV in TriBeCa (Manhattan)
 - + the lawn of Automotive High School in Williamsburg (Brooklyn)
 - + the Solar One pier on the East River at 23rd St. (Manhattan)
 - + in Open Road park on 11th St btw. 1st Ave. / Ave A (Manhattan)
 - + in Fort Greene Park (Brooklyn)
 - + the roof of the Brooklyn Navy Yard in Fort Greene
 - + the roof of the National Black Programmers Consortium in Harlem
 - + the roof of Pier 40 on the Hudson River at Houston St. (Manhattan)
 - + and other stunning spots!